5) The pay of the post of Superintendent, Commercial Intelligence was originally Rs.200-20-300, but this was revised and reduced to Rs.150-10-200 in July 1934. In view of the very strong and repeated recommendations of the Director, his proposal to appoint Mr. Venkatachar as sub pro tem Superintendent of Commercial Intelligence may be approved. It does not seem fair to further reduce the grade as suggested by the Financial Secretary.

27/11

SIR,

B.

Adverting to your letter No. D. 1511/I & C 251-33-4 dated the 31st August 1934 stating that the proposal for the grant of an increase in pay to Mr. V. Venkatachar cannot be sanctioned for the present, I have the honor to state that Mr. Venkatachar, Commercial Probationer, has satisfactorily completed his training in this Department, as already reported to Government. He has done very responsible work in the department for a series of months now. In particular, I may mention that he studied the Coconut Industry and drew up a valuable report. He has also prepared a very useful synopsis of measures taken in various countries for the relief of the agriculturists. He is engaged on a similar synopsis in respect of relief to industry in various countries. He was on special duty with Dr. Patel of the Coconut Industry Enquiry, Mr. Livingstone, the Imperial Marketing Officer and with the Tariff Board on Woollen Industry. He is now engaged in studying the Woollen Industry on the spot in the several centres and preparing a monograph of the Woollen Industry in Mysore as a preliminary to answering the questionnaire of the Tariff Board.

His work in the Commercial and Statistical Branch of my Department has been intelligently and enthusiastically done.

The post of Superintendent, Commercial Intelligence, for which he has been trained is vacant on account of Mr. H. K. Ramengar's appointment as Assistant Director. My proposal is merely to appoint Mr. Venkatachar sub-pro-tem in the post for which he has been trained and which he is now competent to hold.

In view of Mr. Venkatachar's enthusiastic and intelligent work, I recommend once again for the very kind consideration of Government, the appointment of Mr. V. Venkatachar as Superintendent, Commercial Intelligence, s.p. t. - the duties of which post he is now actually been discharging for a year now.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Director.
